

Check-Out Contacts for Ohio Equine Study Kits

With previous grant money from the NCHC, Ohio Equine Study Kits were purchased, one for each district in which it was to be stored permanently. 4-H Horse Program volunteer Leaders, Coaches, and Clubs can check-out the kit within their district for use as a learning tool.

The following are the district contacts for checking out the kit:

North Central	Robbie Haskins 919-772-9400 thebarnone@aol.com	Southeast	Kim Nead 252-223-2950 neadszoo@ec.rr.com
Northeast	Gerda Rhodes 252-793-2163 gerda_rhodes@ncsu.edu	South Central	Sharon Gilbert 910-893-5867 Creekscout@aol.com
Northwest	Morgan Maness 336-342-8248 morgan_maness@ncsu.edu	Southwest	To Be Determined
		Western	To Be Determined

Horse Learning Laboratory Kit

This learning laboratory kit designed for hands on learning. The kit can be used for Skillathon practice or in any situation where information about horses is needed. The kit contents are clear, concise, and durable.

Each kit contains:

- Educators' Resource Materials Set - This resource contains masters of the learning laboratory kit contents
- Situation/ task statements
- Charts and diagrams
- Identification tags
- Assembly instructions
- Educators' Curriculum Guide
- Animal medication product label and insert posters
- Animal skeleton structure poster
- Animal part identification posters
- Structural correctness posters-front, rear and side views
- Animal teeth development identification cards
- Animal digestive tract identification poster
- Animal foot structure identification poster
- Feed and seed samples
- Ground Handling Horses Safely video
- Equipment and tack identification color prints
- Plant material identification color prints
- Color breed identification prints with name tags and trait descriptions and much more!

Posters, charts, and prints are laminated. Velcro is included for attaching i.d. tags to posters and charts. Comes with durable, attractive canvas carrying case